

Mrs. Martin nominated Jacob for the Student of the Week feature. She said that Jacob has always been willing to help other students within the class when they are struggling. Kindness and caring are important at Sunrise and we like to recognize those students who embody these characteristics.

Congratulations Jacob!

Sponsored by

Striving to empower every learner to thrive by enhancing the services and recognition of students and staff.

www.bpsfoundation.com